The 1946 Echo

A Log of the Activities of the Class of 1946

ELKHART
HIGH SCHOOL
Elkhart — Illinois

Dedication . . .

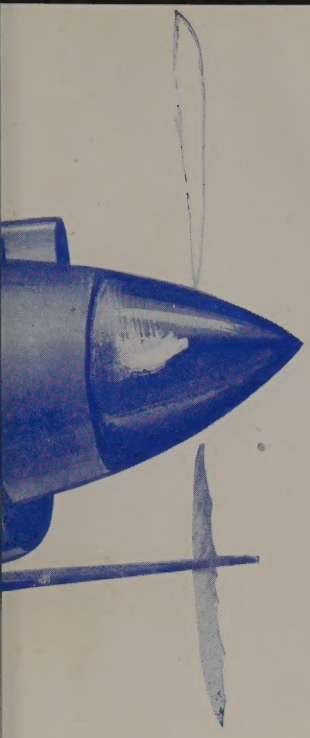

We, the Echo Staff of the E-46 are dedicating this issue of the annual to MR. TILLMAN KNUDSON as a means of showing our appreciation for his personal services here at camp.

Mr. Knudson trained the cadets on social science obstacle courses, and directed the ground crews during the absence of the former coach and history teacher who was called into service.

He is one who required us to know the world happenings as well as the contents of the printed textbook's pages, that we might realize the importance of our roles in the world of tomorrow.

Through his perseverance and kind service, his ground crews won five trophies for the camp this year.

In recognition of his sincere interest in these crews, we dedicate this Log of the E-46.

Foreword . . .

The crew of the E-46 has endeavored to produce a yearbook which will keep alive an old tradition of a yearly annual. This privilege offers a sacred trust and duty which we desire to fulfill to the utmost of our ability.

We hope that our book will serve as an inspiration and revive old memories of our youth many years from now. As a class we are thankful for the opportunities we have been able to enjoy and for the help and cooperation the community has given.

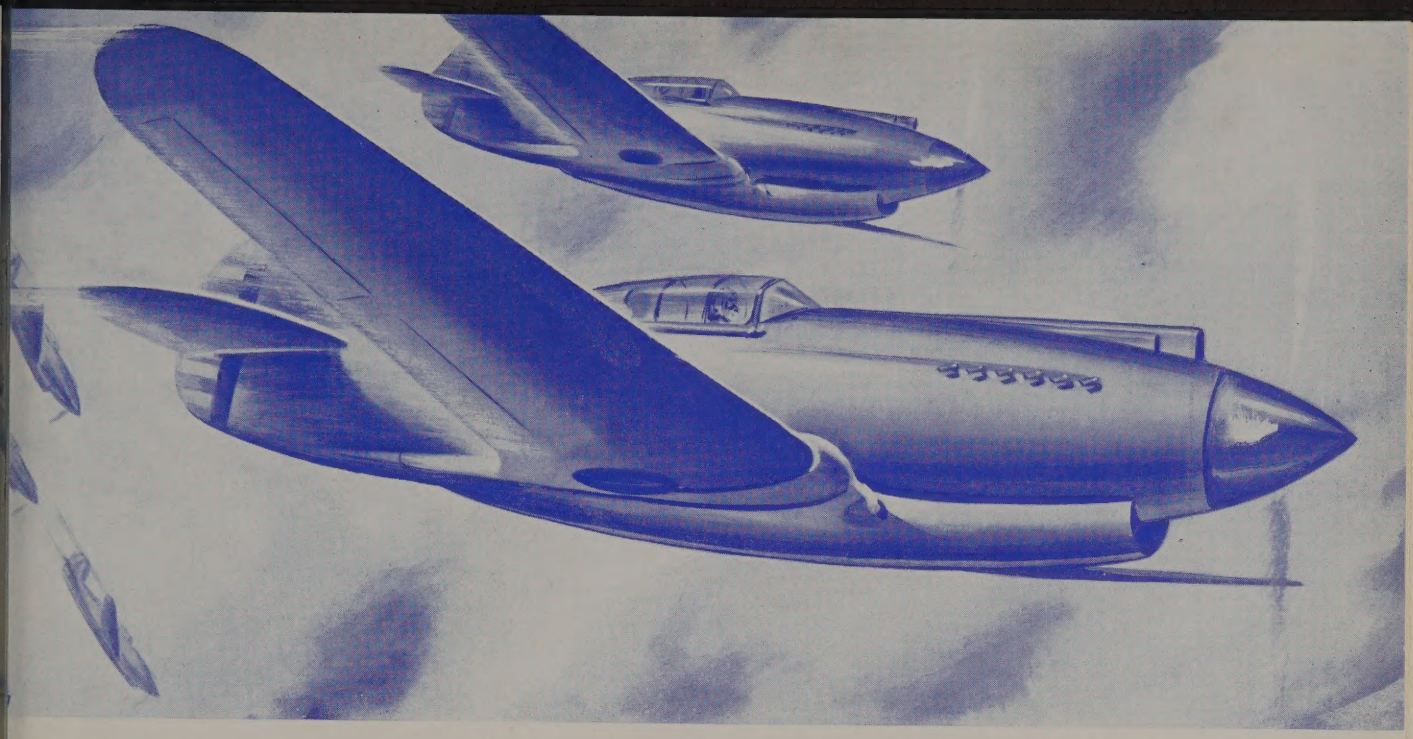

As the class of the E-46 we have enjoyed training on the campus during the past four years. Our great flight has just begun, but if the rest of our life contains as many happy memories as our career on the campus has, we will be well rewarded.

The Cadets of '46 of the Elkhart Community High School dedicate this page to the alumni who have returned from all branches of the armed forces and to those who are still serving our country.

Preservers of our nation wide
On land, in air, on sea,
Accept our token of esteem
For this--our liberty.

Our Camp Supervisors . . .

D. LANTERMAN

We would not fail to pay respect to those who supervise our training school so effectively, giving us the best that a small school can have.

It is they that determine the regulations and policies of our school, and through their direction, "it has continued its lofty ideals even in the turmoil confronting the youth of our era."

MR. W. W. RITCHIE

Commanding Officer . . .

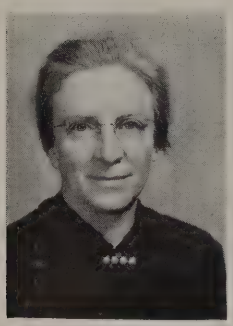

Commanding Officer W. W. Ritchie has successfully piloted our ship these last four years at the E-46 training field.

He has been our beacon light throughout our practice flights, and has kept us on the beam when ceilings approached zero.

We are indebted to him for his guidance and his helpfulness in charting our course for a mastery of the art of living in these unsettled times.

Last Will and Testament of E-46 . . .

We, the graduating class of one thousand nine hundred and forty-six, being of reasonably sound mind and body do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

TO THE PHYSICS TEACHER—We, the seniors of the Physics class leave our exuberant knowledge of Science and Atomic power, even though Washington, D. C., should have priority on such a wealth of facts.

ARTICLE II

TO THE JUNIORS—We leave our good reputation—our advice is: Don't wait to be paid for being good—be good for nothing.

TO THE SOPHOMORES—We leave our outstanding grades with the recommendation that scholarship be lowered, setting the passing mark at thirty-five instead of the present seventy.

ARTICLE III

Personal Bequests

I, Bucket Brennan, leave my arguing ability to John Irish to argue with Mr. Ritchie. But be sure you know what you are talking about before you start arguing, John.

I, James Coady, leave Annetta Pearl VanFosson to nobody. In other words, "Hands Off."

I, Wilford Damarin, leave my manly physique to Donald Ball (Atlas has nothing on him) and my careful driving to Bob "Speed" Corrigan. In driving carefully, Bob, be sure to take corners on two wheels and don't go under seventy-five.

I, Mary June Deters, leave my big brother to Lottie Dalton. Take it easy, Lottie. He is a fragile piece of humanity.

I, John Fitzgibbon, leave my new Ford to Farmer Davis. Please don't treat it as you do the Plymouth, Farmer.

I, Kenneth Fulscher, leave Dorothy Damarin to Howard Doty. The only restriction is that you have to take good care of her.

I, Alice Greer, leave my yelling ability to Emma Jean Anderson. You could make a good one-lady cheering section at the basketball games.

I, Lynn Greer, leave my women-killing tactics to Dean "Charles" Boyer. I am the "height" of perfection. Maybe just "height."

I, Eugenia Meredith, leave my athletic ability to Luetta Mae Ball. Be sure to take exercises, Luetta, to keep that waist line down.

I, Gladys Pankey, leave my diamond rings to Mary Ellen Stubblefield. Don't lose the glass set, "Stubby."

I, Paul Schahl, leave my good behavior to Joe Bushell, but you don't inherit my kissing ability.

I, Maybelle Teaney, leave my appendectomy to anybody who will have it, and be sure to wait until next senior play so you will get plenty of attention.

I, Norma Wilham, leave my "RED" hair to Mr. Stumm. Be sure to comb the waves carefully and use good shampoo to keep the ringlets in place.

SIGNED AND DECLARED to us this Thirty-first day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-six.

Flight Log of the "E-46" . . .

In 1942 sixteen new cadets enrolled at E.C.H.S. Flight School, electing Robert Steller, Lynn Greer, and Elizabeth Gleason to whip the rookies into line. Mr. Eldon Powell was chief instructor. With the usual activities the rookies passed their basic training and were given a furlough.

After three months they came back, and John Fitzgibbon, William Bechtel, and Eugenia Meredith were in control of the trainees with Miss Neill, chief instructress. This time the cadets all soloed in grand style.

Again they took a three months pass and upon return to the pre-flight, elected Norma Wilham, Robert Steller, and Lynn Greer as first class officers. Mrs. Helen Musa Rankin navigated. During this semester two special events occurred: the Junior and Senior Banquet and a class play, "Pleased Ta Meetcha."

For the final instruction before wings could be earned fifteen members, including two trainees, Mary June Deters and Maybelle Teaney, who were transferred from Middletown and Modesto, elected Lynn Greer, pilot; Paul Schahl, co-pilot; and Kenneth Fulscher, navigator, with Miss Lucy Giger as captain. Within the first semester two students had bailed out, Shirley Banister landing at Greenview and Robert Steller into the ocean to become a first class sailor. They presented a class play, "Apron String Revolt," published the Echoette, were guests of honor at the Junior-Senior Prom, and sold magazines, candy, and "coke."

On May 31 the remaining received their wings to soar,

"Out of School Life,
Into Life's School."

Crew's Possible Landings

While standing around in P-X Lounge one of the pilots of the class of '46 said, "Wouldn't you like to know what this gang will be doing ten (10) years from now"? Because mind can travel faster than the new jet-propelled plane, I could see:

WILLIAM BRENNAN: The famous pitcher for the Cardinals.

JAMES COADY: The husband of that certain blonde, that he now watches.

WILFORD DAMARIN: Famous for his auto-race driving.

MARY JUNE DETERS: The editor of the Lincoln Evening Courier.

JOHN FITZGIBBON: The owner of a "Scottie" farm.

KENNETH FULSCHER: With his Master's Degree in Physics.

ALICE GREER: The wife of a M/Sgt. of World War II living in Texas.

LYNN GREER: A professor at the University of Illinois.

EUGENIA MEREDITH: The wife of a certain veteran of World War II.

GLADYS PANKEY: The wife of a sailor to whom she is now engaged.

PAUL SCHAHL: The sole owner of the great "Schahl Hatchery."

MAYBELLE TEANEY: Singing with the Shady Valley Folks over WDZ.

NORMA WILHAM: Cruising around the world in a special boat designed by Robert.

Junior Cadets . . .

The class of '47 entered E.C.H.S. September 4, 1945, as a pre-flight group of sixteen. One of these cadets transferred to a different unit at Hillsboro and another "washed out."

Mrs. Helen Musa Rankin was the commanding officer, with Elizabeth Gleason, Kenneth Weatherby, and Emma Jean Anderson acting as "top kicks" to carry out the orders issued by Commander Rankin.

This group of cadets has carried out its pre-flight training very well. It has edited several issues of the school paper, staged a junior play, sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom, sold stationery and Christmas cards, and at the annual Homecoming it conducted a free-throw contest, sold chances on a blanket, and kept a check room for the convenience of the people.

The only two girls in the Boys' 4-H Club are junior cadets. Their project is raising pigs. Another cadet is an honorary delegate at the State Home Economics Club Camp. Some of these trainees will participate in the Spring Concert. These cadets have the biggest treasury that any pre-flight group has ever had at E.C.H.S.

These are the pre-flights of today and the Senior Fliers of tomorrow.

Third Row: B. Jones, F. Scott, H. Ott, J. Irish, M. Johnson, L. Ball.
Second Row: J. Brennan, W. Rickords, R. Morgan, J. Bobell, N. Grieme.
First Row: H. Rankin, sponsor; W. Hanner, E. Anderson, E. Gleason, K. Weatherby, I. Hunter.

Sophomore Cadets . . .

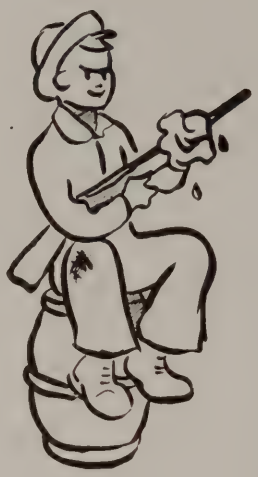

Twenty-five cadets re-entered Camp E.C.H.S. in the fall of 1945. Miss Neill acted as officiating instructress, while their "Shave Tails" were: Evelyn Drake, Gary Bobell, and Martha Ebbersten.

Goblins and witches raided the Flight Headquarters when the cadets were hosts at an all-school party on Halloween.

Homecoming was a tremendous success for the cadets this year; therefore they are looking forward to a successful year next fall when they enter primary training.

Fourth Row: H. Critcheloe, E. Davis, R. Olson, J. Smith, C. Bryson, D. Boyer, R. Corrigan.
Third Row: M. Stubblefield, E. Dains, D. Larson, H. Brennan, Y. Schacht, M. Lee.
Second Row: A. Van Fosson, L. Crowe, E. Weddle, G. Van Fosson, L. Anderson, D. Davis.
First Row: J. Deters, A. Greer, G. Bobell, E. Drake, M. Ebbersten, M. Neill, sponsor.

Freshman Cadets . . .

A lively gang of twenty-seven green rookies were inducted into the E.C.H.S. Training Camp, September 4, 1945.

They seemed very peculiar to the veterans, at first, but after a few days they caught on to the discipline of the camp, and shortly after the initiation administered by the seniors, they became full fledged regulars.

Mr. Stumm, their special trainer, with appointment of Marian Burns, Pat Gleason, and Phyllis Walsh for "Shave Tails," guided them through the intricacies of Homecoming, and on April 26 they gave one of the most successful school parties of the year.

Fourth Row: S. Buttell, C. Oltmanns, J. Bushell, J. Radtke, H. Doty, W. Teaney, R. Lanterman.
Third Row: J. Teaney, F. Weatherby, L. Johnson, D. Damarin, D. Davis, B. Turner, P. Olson.
Second Row: D. Ball, M. Jones, J. Ott, D. Gleason, D. Folkes, E. Pickett, J. Baumgardner.
First Row: W. Stumm, sponsor; B. Irish, P. Cleason, M. Burns, P. Walsh, M. Miller, D. Turner.

PROPOGANDA DEPARTMENT

The Red and White Division has its own branch of psychological warfare. It is headed by five cheerleaders, Gladys Pankey, Joan Brennan, Annetta Van Fosson, Elizabeth Gleason, and Donna Larson.

These girls have been awarded the Copper Star for their valiant services rendered to raise the morale of the E.C.H.S. Camp when the games got close.

Over the Plate . . .

With bayonets (spikes) bared, the Diamond Division batted its way into second place in the county, being defeated by Pulaski, only, in the Logan County Conference.

Conference games won and lost follow:

Opponent	Date	We	They
Hartsburg	Sept. 21	12	1
New Holland	Oct. 2	2	1
Middletown	Oct. 5	8	0
Atlanta	Oct. 8	5	2
Mt. Pulaski	Oct. 16	0	3

Back Row: B. Corrigan, R. Olson, P. Gleason, J. Fitzgibbon, H. Critcheloe, E. Weddle, Coach Knudson.
First Row: W. Damarin, E. Davis, L. Anderson, J. Coady, W. Brennan, L. Greer, W. Hanner.

On the Offensive . . .

Although stricken with heavy casualties and suffering ten defeats, the basketball division, better known as the Red and White division, smashed through with sixteen battles won, capturing two seconds and a third place trophy. The closest entanglement with the enemy on the latter's soil was within the Athenian stronghold, during the Athens-Greenview Tournament. Both struggled in deadly combat, with Athens emerging a two-point winner which gave the Redbirds second.

When Elkhart fought Atlanta on the field of Lincoln, the Redwings of the enemy turned a near defeat into a rally to win first in the county.

Perhaps our second greatest triumph was at Hartsburg where our forces penetrated a solid wall of Stags to defeat them three points.

The second army must also be mentioned; they lost only two battles in the whole year, thus being the proud possessor of another second place trophy.

Back Row: Coach Knudson, R. Olson, W. Damarin, P. Gleason, B. Rickords, L. Anderson.
First Row: W. Hanner, J. Coady, L. Greer, J. Fitzgibbon, E. Davis.

Elkhart Grade School Cadets . . .

The junior cadets of Elkhart grade school gave promise for an interesting morale building program when they reach camp E.C.H.S., for they won 9 and lost but 3 of their games played during the season.

The heavyweight division placed first in the Logan County Tournament.

Back Row: J. Carter, R. Lanterman, V. Dennison, C. Ebbersten, J. Ward.
Middle Row: V. Lanterman, principal; V. Plummer, R. Mercker, C. Davis, D. Logan.

First Row: C. Ebbersten, D. Pankey, J. Greer, C. Buckles, B. Dennison, V. Lanterman, principal.

U.S.O. HIGHLIGHTS

Whenever transportation to U.S.O. Centers was necessary, Albert Hartley and Johnny McCue saved many a trainee from aching arches by driving the two busses.

"Here Comes The Band . . ."

There is nothing like a band to raise the morale of the cadets and officers in camp. Although handicapped by the graduation of veterans and by having no instrumental instructor last year, the newly organized group soon entertained at a home basketball game, and at the spring concert.

Mr. W. F. Bunnell acted as chief officer of this group with Mary Ellen Stubblefield, Marilyn Johnson, and Helen Ott as his aides.

Third Row: W. Bunnell, director; E. Dains, N. Grieme, J. Bushell, E. Drake, H. Doty, D. Larson.

Second Row: A. VanFosson, Y. Schacht, H. Brennan, N. Greer, N. Davis, L. Brennan, M. Lee, A. Greer, K. Weatherby, D. Ball, W. Davis, V. Dennison, L. Gleason, S. Buttell, C. Bryson.

First Row: E. Gleason, E. Anderson, L. Ball, L. Johnson, J. Brennan, P. Olson, M. Miller, Alice Greer, D. Folkes, G. VanFosson, W. Rickords, R. Corrigan, M. Johnson.

Girls' Chorus . . .

At the beginning of the year thirty-eight Waafs enrolled in chorus. They elected Norma Wilham, president; Marilyn Johnson, vice-president, and Eugenia Meredith, secretary-treasurer, with Evelyn Drake, accompanist.

The big event of the year was a concert. The group entertained twice at the Household Science meetings, and smaller groups sang at surrounding Community Clubs.

The girls furnished their own funds by paying a 5-cent fee each week. Out of this, sets of music were purchased and a party was given.

Back Row: D. Larson, F. Scott, M. Johnson, H. Brennan, A. Greer, M. Deters, A. Greer, H. Ott, E. Anderson, M. Miller, L. Ball.

Third Row: D. Damarin, B. Irish, E. Dains, Y. Schacht, J. Brennan, M. Ebbersten, N. Grieme, L. Johnson, B. Jones, M. Burns.

Second Row: M. Teaney, E. Meredith, M. Stubblefield, E. Gleason, N. Wilham, M. Lee, P. Walsh, J. Teaney, D. Davis, F. Weatherby.

First Row: A. VanFosson, E. Pickett, B. Turner, E. Drake, accompanist; Mr. Bunnell, sponsor; P. Olson, M. Jones, D. Davis.

Boys' Chorus . . .

"Off we go into the wild blue yonder——" The sound is not of the motors but of the twenty-three voices of the boys' chorus. These songsters of the air often do go off into the wild blue yonder with such songs as "Stout Hearted Men," "Vacant Chair," and "Street Urchin's Medley."

Their top-ranking officers are Lynn Greer, Jim Coady, and Harry Critcheloe, while Mr. W. F. Bunnell acts as chief instructor.

One of the senior pilots and seven of those in training sang at the Spring Concert and at the F.F.A. Banquet. An octet of eight other fliers sang at Maple Grove Community Club.

Back Row: B. Rickords, B. Olson, D. Turner, P. Gleason, L. Greer, R. Morgan, J. Coady, H. Doty, J. Radtke.

Second Row: J. Bushell, H. Critcheloe, D. Boyer, G. Bobell, J. Bobell, C. Bryson, G. VanFosson, C. Oltmanns.

First Row: J. Baumgardner, J. Ott, L. Anderson, Mr. Bunnell, sponsor; E. Drake, accompanist; D. Lanterman, K. Weatherby, D. Ball.

"Lady, Wake Up!"

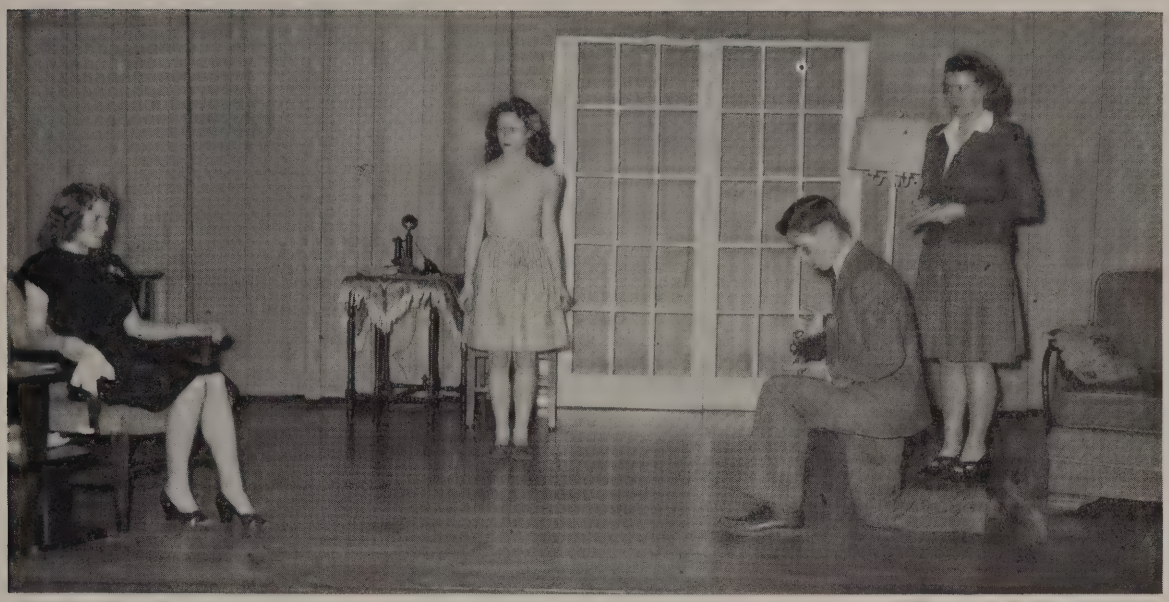

On November 2, the junior class, under the direction of Helen Musa Rankin, presented the play, "Lady, Wake Up"! This play consists of three acts of suspense and humor all caused by the hypnotic sleep of Fay Duncan who, alone, knew the hiding place of some very important contracts which her husband had to have for a big deal.

The Echoette soared through with flying colors during the last year. With the aid of the commissioned officers, Helen Musa Rankin and Lucy Giger, and the juniors, who published four of the fourteen issues, the paper improved issue by issue.

Its main bases are the Illinois State High School Press Association and the National Duplicated Paper Association. Contact is made with 12 neighboring schools, board members, and other interested people throughout the community.

Future Homemakers of America . . .

The Future Homemakers of America, under the leadership of Miss Neill, with Dorothy Davis, president; Estella Dains, vice-president; Norma Wilham, secretary-treasurer; Emma Anderson, parliamentarian; Nancy Grieme, historian; Evelyn Drake and Elizabeth Gleason, song leaders, completed a successful year for 1945-46. The club is a nationally affiliated one.

The club has forty-one regular members; an honorary member, Mrs. Rankin, and Miss Giger as Chapter Mother.

Some of the main events of the year were: The Mother's Tea in May, the Rally held at Mt. Pulaski, at which the scrapbooks were judged, a bake sale, and a picnic in Springfield.

Bi-monthly meetings were held with committees appointed to take care of programs and refreshments.

SECRETARY . . . . WAYNE HANNER
TREASURER . . . . . JOHN BOBELL
REPORTER . . . . . BILLY RICKORDS
WATCHDOG . . . JOHN FITZGIBBON

A program of work was set up by the chapter at its first meeting in September. The committees and their chairmen are as follows: Supervised Farm Practice, Clifford Bryson; General, Gary Bobell; Community Service, Robert Corrigan; Recreation, Robert Olson; Scholarship, John Fitzgibbon; Leadership, Paul Schahl; Earnings and Savings, Kenneth Weatherby; Conduct of Meetings, James Coady; Cooperation, Earl Davis.

One of the most active committees is the cooperation committee which mixes hog supplements. These supplements are sold at cost to members who have sow and litter projects.

The chapter has made money by selling food, ice cream, and pop at basketball games, selling chances for the Homecoming, sponsoring a Donkey Basketball game, and by selling Funks garden seeds.

On February 16 the poultry and grain judging teams went to Petersburg, returning with a seventh and an eleventh placing.

The annual Parent and Son Banquet, a highlight of the year, was held April 23 in the high school gymnasium.

Back Row: G. Bobell, H. Doty, R. Olson, P. Gleason, J. Deters, R. Morgan, D. Turner, J. Radtke, J. Smith, C. Bryson.
Third Row: K. Weatherby, D. Gleason, G. VanFosson, E. Davis, D. Boyer, R. Corrigan, H. Critcheloe, J. Bushell, W. Teaney.
Second Row: D. Ball, J. Ott, L. Anderson, E. Weddle, D. Folkes, S. Buttell, C. Oltmanns, R. Lanterman, J. Baumgardner, L. Crowe.
First Row: P. Schahl, J. Coady, J. Bobell, W. Hanner, L. Greer, J. Fitzgibbon, B. Rickords, J. Irish, Mr. Stumm, adviser.

Junior Sportsman and Conservation Club . . .

Following suggestions made by our State Department of Conservation, Private Lynn Greer of the E-46 crew was sent to Fox Lake for an indoctrination course during the summer of 1945. He came back very much enthused over his travels and his newly gained ideas and ideals. The result was the organization of the Elkhart Junior Sportsman and Conservation Club, led by Lynn Greer, president; Billy Joe Rickords, vice-president; Wayne Hanner, secretary-treasurer; and John Fitzgibbon, "game warden."

During the 1945-46 season the Sportsman Club was quite active and enjoyed several "flights" among which were the following: Transported and bombed the countryside with 58 pheasant "flying bombs"; showed to the club about 20 reels of film based on conservation and sportsmanship; and, made a trip to the radio station at Bloomington, Illinois, where they broadcast a 15-minute program on the work and ideas back of the club.

With new officers to lead them next year they are looking forward to a pleasant and successful season for 1946-47.

Back Row: C. Bryson, D. Turner, W. Damarin, J. Coady, G. Bobell, R. Olson.
Middle Row: L. Anderson, G. VanFosson, E. Davis, R. Corrigan, K. Weatherby.
First Row: J. Bobell, J. Fitzgibbon, B. Rickords, L. Greer, W. Hanner, Mr. Ritchie, adviser.

Calendar . . .

September—

4—Eighty-four cadets registered for pre-flight training.

15—Barbara Irish tried to use salt in place of sugar for a cake.

30—Senior cadets showed their superiority in Cavern of Horrors.

October—

18—Blankenburgh shot the whole Air Corps group at the Elkhart Pre-Flight Training School.

26—Sophomores gave an all-school party. Was Mr. Ritchie cute?

November—

2—Florence Scott woke up after being hypnotized. Not by Bud either.

December—

3—Bob Steller went back to Great Lakes.

22—Christmas vacation started.

25—Jack Baumgardner almost caught Santa Claus after a long wait.

January—

2—Lynn Greer's mother pushed him out of the house to go back to school.

6—Alice Greer skipped school to go to Lincoln.

15—We flew to Williamsville for combat duty and were shot down in enemy territory. (In other words, DEFEATED.)

22—Horrors!! Semester exams. Every
23 couple met over town including Nancy and Earl.

February—

12—Good ole Abe. No school.

14—To Mr. Ritchie—

Roses are red
Violets are blue,

Luetta Mae Ball.

March—

1—Kenneth Weatherby cut the tails off his lambs.

25—"Have I told you about my operation"? Maybelle took this opportunity to postpone the Senior Play.

30—John Irish subdued the lion.

April—

1—Paul Schahl did not know his shoe was untied.

11—Suki, the wonder dog, show was given. If Annetta can make Jimmy obey as well as Suki she will be doing all right.

12—Music party; and yum, yum, ice cream!

23—All the farmers, past, present, and future, met in the gym to eat.

25—Shades of Shakespeare!

26—Best party of the year was given by the freshmen.

30—Junior Sportsman Club party.

May—

6—I am going stag. How are you going?

7—Mother and Daughter met for tea.

26—Baccalaureate.

28—"Lord God of hosts be with us yet,
29 Lest we forget, lest we forget."

31—Seniors receive wings.

Mrs. Rankin's favorite poem:

The gum-chewing girl
And the cud-chewing cow
Are somewhat alike
Yet different somehow.
What is the difference?
Oh, I see it now
It's the thoughtful look
On the face of the cow.
